India despite its obligations, including under the WTO, and has cited extraneous political, economic and other reasons for this. Pakistan maintains a positive list of importable items from India which currently consists of 773 items.

The Agreement on South Asian Free Trade Area (SAFTA) has come into force from 1st January'2006 and its phased Tariff Liberalization Programme from 1st July, 2006 (Nepal from 1st August, 2006). Under Article 7 of the SAFTA, this TLP would cover all tariff lines except those in the Sensitive List of each member State. India has issued notification for tariff concessions for the first phase of SAFTA TLP with effect from 1.7.2006. Pakistan has also issued notification but with a rider that imports from India would continue to be as per their positive list of importable items from India.

(b) and (c) Government of Pakistan has not communicated any preconditions for grant of MFN status to India.

Revival of closed plantations in Kerala
